

Motherhood

MOTHERHOOD is the reward nature bestows upon healthy womanhood. Women whose vitality has been sapped by disease cannot safely give birth to children. In pregnancy and in childbirth weakness of the mother is revealed in the pain and agony she suffers.

This great medicine drives out every vestige of inflammation and weakness, and gives tone and strength to the delicate organs which mature the child. The pains of pregnancy are banished by Wine of Cardui, and miscarriages, which blast so many fond mother's hopes, are prevented. Flooding, which so often occurs after pregnancy, is corrected when Wine of Cardui is used during pregnancy.

Wine of Cardui babies are healthy babies, because, during the pregnancy, the mother is able to give them necessary vitality and strength.

With these facts presented to American women no expectant mother should be satisfied without the reinforcement that Wine of Cardui affords. Every mother should be able to treat herself in her home with this valuable medicine.

Wine of Cardui can be secured from any druggist at $1.00 a bottle.

Polyceap, N. C., Jan. 11, 1902.

I am the mother of seven children and while in pregnancy with the last one suffered untold misery until they were born. One month before the birth I began to take a bottle of Wine of Cardui, which gave me relief after taking three doses. I used the remainder of the bottle until the birth of the child, and was stouter in three days after the birth than I was in the month before the birth of the first six. I am 29 years old.

Bee Keeping in Idaho.

There is one interest in its infancy in Idaho, that of bee keeping, that promises before many years to rank well up in the list of profitable occupations afforded by our unexcelled climate and favorable conditions. Quite a number of people have gone into the business in a small way, and where any care is bestowed, it has proved very profitable. The most striking success afforded in that line, is that of F. E. Atwater, of this city, a young man whose health was so poor he was unable to perform hard manual labor. He started in a few years ago with but a few dollars, and today he owns 700 stands of bees, and is able to ship honey in carload lots to the Eastern market.

It is reported that the honey crop raised in this part of the Boise, Payette and Snake river valleys this year for shipment, will amount to about 200,000 pounds. It seldom brings less than 10 cents per pound, and much of it is sold for 12 1/2 cents. Even at 10 cents it will bring a neat sum of money.—Boise Capital News.

County Seat Fight Coming.

A renewal of the county seat fight, waged by Prairie City and its adherents for the change of the county seat from Canyon to the former place, has been made by the Prairie City county seat association. A meeting has been held and advance steps taken to have two petitions in the field not later than the coming month. The first will be drawn after the pattern of the successful Union county petition, and will probably be put in cir-ulation on election day, November 8. Although the vote cannot be taken for two years, the committee in charge wish to have plenty of time to secure the required 60 per cent of signatures, and then some. The other paper to be circulated will call for subscriptions to build the court house, which will be a duplication of the Wheeler county building.—John Day News.

Forgeries at Spokane.

Wholesale forgeries in Spokane during the past two or three days have resulted in the swindling of saloonkeepers and merchants out of more than $200 through cashing checks which have proved bogus.

The police already have six of the checks and there are eight or 10 more reported as having been received by the banks this morning.

The checks are for small sums, most of them being pay checks ostensibly and call for amounts of $15 and less. The checks were cashed by two men at different saloons and in stores.

The men worked rapidly and are believed to have left the city last night.—Spokane Press.

City Ownership at Grass Valley.

At the last meeting of the city council of Grass Valley, it completed the arrangements of purchasing and enlarging the electric light and water plant, purchasing several hundred feet of steel water pipe from a firm in Portland, and a 30,000 gallon red wood tank from the Citizens Commercial Co., at Grass Valley.—Kent (Sherman county) Recorder.

TESTED AND PROVEN.

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months Pendleton readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit.

F. A. Morris, retired, who lives on Perkins avenue, is well known to Pendleton people, says: "I was troubled with my kidneys off and on for three years. In early days, I worked standing all day at a bench and later on I became motorman on an electric car. That, too, kept me on my feet all day and aggravated my complaint if it did not start it. It annoyed me through the day more than at any other time. I finally got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the Brock & McComas Co. drug store and used them. They cured me. I have not had even the slightest attack of backache for five years, nor have I used any pills since I stopped the treatment last October."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

THEATREDOM

"Hills of California."

Few people who witnessed Mr. Frank Bacon's artistic portrayal of "Amos Hill" in "The Hills of California," know that he attained that rural ease on a farm of his own. In one of the most delightful spots in Santa Clara valley, he owns a pretty orchard home, where, during his vacations he prunes his trees and even follows the plow as though that was his only vocation in life.

In his part of Amos Hill, the simple, honest-hearted old farmer, he lives the character—his natural magnetism and quaint drollery fit into the part like a glove.

"The Hills of California" is a rural classic, ranking with the best plays of this order; it abounds in natural comedy situations and purest with tears, and a perfect satisfaction that all ends well when the curtain falls.

Mr. Bacon's success in this play was phenomenal last year and this year's production exceeds the other in all details.

"The Hills of California" will be presented at the Frazer tonight.

"Heart of Chicago."

Lincoln J. Carter's "Heart of Chicago" will be seen at the Frazer on Tuesday, November 8. This play has been before the public for ten years and is now in its eleventh season, and has played in every town and most of the theaters in the United States and Canada. That such an attraction could keep in the good graces of the theatergoers for so long a time, there must be something of more than ordinary merit to the play. Aside from the strongly written lines and well-connected story, the scenic effects are the most novel of any melodrama on the road. The story is familiar to every theater patron and needs no explanation. An excellent cast is said to be with the attraction this year and includes Mr. John T. Nicholson, whose playing of John Ames is a finished study. Others in the company are Miss Katherine Marney, Clyde Hess, Emily Lessing, Chas. Wells, Blanche Boyer and others. Mr. Wells and Blanche Boyer give a neat specialty during the action of the piece. There are also other specialties introduced.

Popular Priced Attraction.

What the theatergoers want nowadays is clean comedy and high-class vaudeville at popular prices of admission. Realizing this fact, Mr. Wiedemann brought to the coast Wiedemann's big show, carrying a company of 25 people, band and orchestra and is presenting a repertoire of the latest comedy successes at 15, 25 and 35 cents. The engagement opens at the Frazer theater for five nights and a Saturday matinee, commencing Wednesday, November 9. The opening bill, "Michael Strogoff," is too well known to go into detail with. Among the other bills to be presented are such plays as "Hazel Kirke," "Tennessee's Partner," "At the Old Lime Kiln," "My Uncle from New York" and "The Silver King." The band gives a street parade each day and a concert in front of the theater each evening. The prices for the matinee will be 15 and 25 cents. A complete change of play and vaudeville acts each night.

Golden Rule Store.

By mistake of the factory the Golden Rule Store has about three times as many golf gloves as were ordered. Rather than return them, it has been decided by a big reduction in price to close them out. You ought to see the 50c values they are offering for 25c, and the 75c values which go for 45c.

Doesn't Respect Old Age.

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off germs no matter how severe and irremediable of old age. Dyspepsia, jaundice, fever, constipation all yield to this perfect pill. 25c at Tallman & Co.'s drug store.
